

Article 12 – Your right to say your ideas and be listened to.

Article 19 – Your right to be kept safe.

Article 28 – Your right to learn at school.

Article 29 – Your right to be the best you can be.

Article 31 - Your right to relax and play.

Children respect these rights by:

- Putting their hands up and waiting for their turn to speak.
- Listening to everyone politely.

- Concentrating and working as hard as they can.
- Knowing and understanding their next steps for learning.
- Looking after the Classroom and all the equipment in it.

-Sharing playground equipment and taking turns.

-Asking others to join in.

- Being careful and looking out for each other.

Adults respect these rights by:

- Creating opportunities for children to speak and listen to each other.

- Listening to children's ideas and taking them into account.
- Preparing lessons that challenge every child at their level.

- Providing children with a safe place to play, and supervising their playtimes.